

Liturgical Organist Job Description

Reporting to:

- The Director of Music

Key Lateral relationships:

- Music administrator
- Master of the Temple
- Reader of the Temple
- Church Administrator
- Verger

Job Description

- To play for all sung services:
- Wednesday: 4.00pm-7.00pm
- Sunday: 9.00am-1.00pm
- To allow adequate preparation time
- To give occasional recitals and play for concerts in the Church
- To supply appropriate organ music for the music list
- Administration

Extras (for which a fee is payable)

- Tours
- Recording
- Memorial services
- Weddings, including the booking of singers

Audition format

The audition date is Friday 10 May 2019. Candidates will be required to:

- Attend an interview
- Accompany the Temple Singers in Elgar's Give unto the Lord
- Play a piece of Bach (no more than 7 minutes)
- Play a hymn and improvise

Remuneration

The remuneration is £12,000 per annum plus pension contribution, private health care and free lunch/lunch allowance

Disclosure and Barring Service

An enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service check is required for this position

Application process

Please send a covering letter (either by email or post) outlining your suitability for the role together with a CV and two referees (who know you in a work capacity) by Friday 3 May 2019 to:

Liz Clarke, Music Administrator

Temple Church Music Office

1 Inner Temple Lane

Temple, London EC4Y 1AF

Tel: 020 7427 5650

Email: liz@templechurch.com

Website: www.templechurch.com